Small Tombstone Across Drive is Remembrance to "Our Dog Mike"

*He Was an Ugly Canine, But Friendly;
Was Lord Chancellor and Viceroy Too*

By Marjorie McAllister

Now beneath a memorial tomb lies "Our dog Mike."

Perhaps a few will believe it should they hear that Mike, once an ugly little cur, rated a number of years ago as perhaps the most popular figure on the campus.

Few students now notice the small tombstone just as they cross the road east of the administration building. Perhaps fewer students know the story that lies behind that small granite marker.

Twenty-two years ago a little dog, not pretty at all, but friendly, made his appearance on the campus. No one knew where he came from. He just appeared.

He was not to remain unnoticed for long however. Mike, as he was called, wanted to make social contacts, so it seemed. Two of his first acquaintances were M. Boase, secretary to the President of the College, and Mr. W. A. Rickenbrode.

A Scholar Too

But Mike was not only a social butterfly, oh no, he was a true scholar in dogdom if there ever was one, and he was just as anxious as anyone to have an education. He wanted to be a gentleman.

So Mike reported for classes as regular as the sun, and took his place with the air of one who was well aware of the situation.

Slept With Faculty

And then every evening he would select some instructor with whom he wished to spend the night and to that fortunate one he proceeded as guest of honor.

He was seen many a warm day chasing rabbits, digging for ground squirrels and assisting Mr. Brink in their work of superintending the ground. He dug holes in soft turf, of course, but the holes were filled and the flowers replanted without ever a word to Mike.

He appeared at athletic contests clad in his green and white blanket with a white "M" properly displayed on each side. Mike was allowed to stroll at will on the basketball court, and to drink out of the water bucket.

Oh yes, he was Lord Chancellor and Viceroy, and he knew it too.

A Tragic Ending
Then comes one of the saddest days of the College. On May 15, 1917, poor Mike ceased chasing rabbits and paused to quench his thirst with a drink of lead arsenate being used by an agriculture class which was spraying trees. All efforts of students and a veterinary were in vain. Mike was to roam no more.

A box was placed in the halls of the administration building with a card above it reading "For the Love of Mike." Nickles, dimes and quarters dropped in the box purchased a small tombstone which was placed over the grave of the unfortunate dog.

The inscription on the stone reads, "Mike. To the Memory of Our Dog. Died May 15, 1917."

To those aware the little tomb across the way is a symbol of one who made himself an integral and indispensable part of this institution.

Thompson Directs Building Program

C. K. Thompson, superintendent of schools at Pattonsburg, who graduated from the College ten years ago, has been placed in charge of a building program there. It was learned here this week by Miss Nell Hudson at the College Mr. Thompson received a B. S. degree in 1929.

NOTICE, FRESHMEN!

The Student Affairs Committee of the College has set Thursday, January 26, as the date for the faculty reception for the freshman class. Please reserve this date.

O'Neillians Will Present "Night of January Sixteenth"

President William Hutchinson of the O'Neillian dramatic club announced this week that the O'Neillians would present a three act play by Ayn Rand entitled "The Night of January Sixteenth" at a date to be announced later. The play presents a tense court-room battle in which the life of a woman accused of murder is at stake.

According to Hutchinson the struggle between the opposing councils, the tricks of cross-questioning, the cross-currents of evidence, and the suspense over the jury reaching a verdict, makes this play two hours of solid drama.

A cast of eleven women and eleven men, besides the jury, will be announced soon. Dr. J. P. Kelly, director of the play, said today that a final try-out for students to decide the cast of characters will be held at 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday night, January 17, at Special Hall.

The constitution committee was appointed with the following members, Bill Maloy, Redding, Iowa, chairman, Marjory Stone, Ridgeway, Paul Tracy, Hubbard, Ohio, and Francis Stubbs, Amazonia. The committee will have charge of all changes and revision work on the Student Government constitution.

Committee Completed
The Religious Empathy Week committee was completed with the appointment of Etta Marie Hagee, Lenox, Iowa, last night. The members are Mr. J. L. Zwingli, Department of English, chairman, Miss Olive S. DeLuca, department of fine arts, Dr. Margaret Ruth Smith, director of personnel for women, Mr. Hugh G. Wales, director of personnel for men, and Mr. Sterling Surrey, department of commerce and business administration. The student members of the committee are William Evans, Sheridan, Marjory Stone, Virginia Milliken, Cornning, Iowa, and Miss Hagee.

Dick Dempsey, Kansas City, and Frank Strong, Maryville were appointed as a committee to report on provisions for a study hall in the Administration Building.

Dr. Joseph P. Kelly, head of the speech department of the college, read the poem "Enoch Arden" by Alfred Lord Tennyson in the regular weekly assembly Wednesday morning. Musical accompaniment on the piano was furnished by Miss Marian Kerr, of the College conservatory of music. The program was enjoyed by the student body and several town people.

Senate Rules on Ushers and Grants Scout's Petition

M Club, Peppers to Operate Check Room at STC Gym

By unanimous vote the College Student Senate last Tuesday passed a resolution stating that all class officers and senators would serve as ushers for assembly programs in the College auditorium. This action was taken after considerable discussion among Senate members of a way to improve the methods of seating and exit in the auditorium.

Also the Senate granted the Alpha Phi Omega, national scout service fraternity, the right to handle assembly programs for the remainder of the school year. The fraternity petitioned the Senate for that right.

After a brief discussion about the concession right at the gymnasium, the Senate voted to grant the right to operate a checkroom for the first five games to the M Club and the last three games to the Green and White Peppers pep organization.

Petition for Stunts
Petitions were presented for the right to present stunts at the basketball games by the Barkatze mixed pep squad and the Green and White Peppers, women's pep squad. The schedule of stunts as approved Tuesday gives rights to the Pittsburg game, Jan. 16, the Warrensburg game, Feb. 3, and the Springfield game, Feb. 17, to the Peppers and the rights to the Cape Girardeau game on January 27 and the Kirksville game on February 13 to the Barkatze. The two pep squads will present a joint stunt at the Rolla Miners game, February 10.

Two requests for ticket sale tables in the second floor corridor were granted, one to the Barkatze and one to the Senior class. The Senate decided to send written notification of all concession rights and all requests either granted or rejected.

The constitution committee was appointed with the following members, Bill Maloy, Redding, Iowa, chairman, Marjory Stone, Ridgeway, Paul Tracy, Hubbard, Ohio, and Francis Stubbs, Amazonia. The committee will have charge of all changes and revision work on the Student Government constitution.

The President Says

Today there is a plea for tolerance—of peoples, of races of faiths. The world we live in is shocked by persecutions of groups, by the making of martyrs of millions.

Do we recognize the same need for tolerance of those individuals we know—of their speech, their feelings, their faith, of what they do? The other fellow has his side. He may be right.

Abarr, McCartney, Morrow, Owens, Thomas Nominated for Queen of 1939 Tower, College Yearbook

One Queen, Four Attendants to be Introduced March 17 at Annual Scoop Dance; Chosen By New Arrangement

Nominees for Tower Queen of 1939 were announced Wednesday afternoon by Willis Heal, Kansas City, editor of the 1939 yearbook. Nominees are Florine Abarr, Diagonal, Ia., freshman; Lois McCartney, Rockport, senior; Ruth Morrow, Plattsburg, freshman; Bernice Owens, Maryville, sophomore, and Virginia Thomas, Hemple, sophomore.

Queens for this year's annual were selected under a different arrangement than has been used in the past. This year, in order to give the various candidates a fair chance and to eliminate possible cliques and group candidates, the queens were chosen by individual secret ballots by representative students.

The queens were selected by two ballots. In the first ballot, twenty-eight men students, balanced as to class affiliation and organization membership, each selected three women for his nominations. This resulted in a total of thirty-five candidates for the honor.

In the second ballot, all nominees who received two or more votes in the primary ballot were placed on the list for voting.

Two men from each organization on the campus which includes men on the club roll, then voted on five queens in the list of eleven who received two or more votes in the primary.

This second group of men was entirely different from the first and thus gave a wider range to the balloting.

The queens will be photographed later and these photos submitted to a prominent radio or movie actor for the final selection. This year the selection will be made of one queen and the four remaining candidates will be attendants. The Tower staff has not as yet selected the person who will make the final selection of the queen and this will be announced later. The Queen will be announced at the annual Scoop Dance, Friday, March 17, which is given jointly by the annual, The Tower and this newspaper.

American College Students Approve Roosevelt's Rearmament Program

Poll Shows Youth Favors U. S. Protection of Western Hemisphere

Austin, Texas, January 13—Last week President Roosevelt in his message to Congress asked for armed forces strong enough to aid in the defense of the entire Western Hemisphere. American college youth, the coming generation that may have to fight in another world war, approves of the policy by a good majority.

Students of all classes and in all sections of the United States in a carefully selected cross-section have been interviewed by representatives of the Student Opinion Surveys of America. This non-profit agency of the College press was organized recently for the scientific measurement of public opinion of the nation's student bodies. The current study points out that 62 per cent of the students are for strengthening "the United States army and navy for the protection of all nations in the Western Hemisphere."

A good number of College students, however—38 per cent of them—fear that this is not the way out. Opposition to the President's program has come from many groups, including the Youth Committee Against War.

Events in a hysterical Europe, the American solidarity expressed at the Lima Conference, and the growing threats to democracies, nevertheless, have brought the President to act.

Related to the rearmament problem and one that will have direct effect upon College men is the new program to train civilian aviators in American colleges and universities. The Student Opinion Surveys are now conducting a coast-to-coast poll on this question.

We all have seen packages marked "Not to be opened till Christmas," but now we learn about a package marked "Not to be opened till 6959 A. D." The New York world's fair committee became anxious about the primality of our "civilization," so they loaded a seven-foot metal "cap-

A cheer is in order for the rental library's new addition, "I'm a Stranger Here Myself" by Ogden Nash. For satirical, clever, and biting verse, there is no contemporary poet, in my opinion who can come up to him. His stuff is light, and exceptionally easy reading, and Nash can rhyme words that I never even thought of having a rhyming syllable. For instance, one of the Edith Mirrilless says in an October issue of the New York Times, "While the full size drawing of the main character is interesting the partial portraits which appear in almost bewildering number are most interesting still. . . A local color story, to deserve the name, must be also an illumination of history. Mr. LaFarge is entitled to a vote of thanks for showing in memorable form, not only the heart-breaking wrong of much earlier Indian policy, but also the courageous good sense by which some parts of that wrong are being corrected."

Much of our wit is gross exaggeration. The Baron told in all two-hundred large stories. His two best are his wolf and church stories. I shall relate in brief one of his wolf stories which is not quite as well known as the one about the time he stuck his arm down the wolf's mouth, laid hold of his tail, turned the wolf inside out like a glove, and flung him to the ground where he left him. In the Baron's own words, "At another time when I was riding along in a sledge, in the midst of a dreary Russian forest I spied a terrible wolf making after me with all the speed of ravenous winter hunger. He soon overtook me. There was no possibility of escape. What do you think I did? Why I laid myself down flat in the sledge, and let my horse fly. But soon the wolf caught up, and leaping straight over me, caught the horse in the

An example of satirical wit is seen in one of Lewis' American fables. A peasant who had often heard that Truth was a jewel lying at the bottom of a well, one day descended into his well to search for the treasure. He skinned his knees and elbows, barked his nose, run an old' fork into 'his foot and shivered a round for six long hours before he was drawn up and asked:

"What in Goodness name were you doing down there?"

"Looking for Truth."

"Why I could have told you before you went down there that you were the biggest fool in America!" (Moral) You can get more Truth than you want around any well-curb.

Repatriate is a sudden flash. It is a turning of thought in an opposite direction. Abernethy, the famous surgeon, swore violently at a poor Irish paver who had piled some paving-stones on the Doctor's sidewalk.

"Remove them! away with them!" screamed Abernethy with an oath.

"But where shall I take them to?" asked Pat.

"To hell with them!" exclaimed the Doctor.

"Haddn't I better take them to heaven? Sure, and they'd be more out of your honor's way there," said Pat as he leaned on his spade.

An article of this type would be complete without an example of the "blunder". (I have a great many of these in my personal repertoire).

"Where did you put the hoe say you with?"

"It's gone entirely, father."

"Then I'll break every bone in your body with it if you don't find it."

Another one: An Irishman meeting of a friend who had a stone coffin made for himself, exclaimed:

"Faith that's good. Sure, an' stone 'ud last a man a lifetime."

This next one is scholastic.

(Of this we have a great overproduction probably caused by under-consumption of studies).

"Teacher: 'Who' was the 'Prin-main'?"

Head scholar: "Washington; was the first in war, first in peace and first in."

Teacher: "No, no; Adam was the first man."

Head scholar: "Oh, if you're talking of foreigners, I suppose 'was'."

ASU Votes Approval Of F. D. R.'s Plan For Pilot Training

New York City—(ACP)—Another move to the right, started at its convention a year ago, characterized the fourth national convention here of representatives of the 20,000 members of the American Student Union, fusion group of liberal student organizations.

Still maintaining its support of peace, the Union adopted a peace resolution calling for a study of the defense needs of the U. S. and modified its attitude toward the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. The convention voted approval of the recent plan of President Roosevelt to train students as civilian air pilots.

The peace resolution declared that the people and government of the United States should make a positive contribution to peace by not giving material or moral aid to "those aggressor nations which seem determined to engulf the entire world in war." It commended the Administration policy toward Germany and China.

The defense plank declared that at present unilateral disarmament was not possible, and called for a joint study of defense needs with the National Intercollegiate Christian Council and the National Student Federation of America, the results to be submitted to a referendum of the chapters of the American Student Union.

American Poets May Enter New York Fair Contest

Reserve Places For Exposition Tour With College

American poets are now offered an opportunity to evince their genius in a nation-wide prize competition for an official poem descriptive of the spirit of the New York World's Fair 1939. It was announced by Grover A. Whalen, President of the Fair Corporation, and The Academy of American Poets, which is conducting the contest.

The required subject and title of the submitted poems is "The World of Tomorrow," this being the dramatic theme and inspiration of the Fair.

A contract governing the competition, granting permission to conduct it in connection with the Fair and use the title, "The World of Tomorrow," also setting forth the conditions of the contest, has been signed by Mr. Whalen and the Academy.

Six prizes are to be awarded, a First Prize of $1,000 and five of $100 each. Duplicate prizes will be awarded in case of ties.

By the terms of the contest, the submitted poems must be in the English language, and be comparatively brief and also consonant with the spirit of the Fair. In addition to being original with the contestants, they must not have been previously published. No contestant may submit more than three poems. An official entry blank, obtainable from the Academy at 435 East 52 Street, must accompany each entry.

The Academy reserves publication and all other rights to all poems submitted. Also the Academy assumes no responsibility for loss of manuscripts nor will any manuscripts be returned. Poems must be mailed to the Academy at 435 East 52 Street not later than March 15, 1939.

Three judges have been appointed to make the awards. They are William Rose Benet, Louis Untermeyer and Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. Their decisions will be final and irrevocable.

The College will sponsor a trip to the New York World's Fair August 4 to 15 of this year. Students, alumni and persons in the northwest Missouri district are invited to make the trip.

All persons who are planning to go with the College group next summer are urged to make reservations immediately. Quite a large number of persons have already reserved places, according to Mr. Roy Ferguson who is in charge of the group from northwest Missouri.

Reservations may be made with Mr. Ferguson at the College here.

Pamphlet Shows Only Half of Youth of Ability in College

New York City—(ACP)—That large numbers of college students have less academic ability than the youth of their generation who have become machinists and unskilled workers is disclosed in a pamphlet, "How Good Are Our Colleges?" just released by the Public Affairs Committee.

The pamphlet summarizes the results of the ten-year study of higher education in Pennsylvania made by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

Only about half of the youth of outstanding ability are getting into College, the pamphlet declares, while at least one-fourth of the college students are below the average out-of-school youth in ability.

Colleges are shown to differ widely in the capacity of their students. In one extreme case all of the students in the sophomore class of one college ranked lower in an intelligence test than the dullest student in the sophomore class of a superior institution.

Nor do these differences appear to be due entirely to selection. Thirty-four students out of 106 high school graduates whose tests scores were close to average went to colleges which ranked in the upper half of Pennsylvania colleges. The remaining 72 went to colleges in the lower half. When tested again after four years, the students who attended the top-ranked colleges made scores which were superior to those in the low-ranking institutions by a margin equal to the normal difference between Sophomore and Senior years.

Thus, the pamphlet comments, "If the kind of knowledge measured by these tests is the object of a college education, then it is about twice as expensive in time (and probably in money) to go to the less efficient institutions."

Betty June Harazin, Alexandria, La., spent the week-end with Betty Strong in Clarinda.

Weathered Rawhide

A short, short story By H. L.

An unusual fellow, this pal of mine, keen minded, witty. At the height of his physical perfection, he was a fine specimen of perfect manhood, handsomely muscled, steel shined, a skilled rider. Tall and powerful at his saddle, his fine, free face reflected the freedom and breath of our early rangeland life.

To this day, I can't think of him being old. He's pressing ninety, he might be a little arse of that. Time's faded us both and our shoulders are under the burden of an invisible weight.

The rhythmic swinging gait of our ponies would carry us over tireless miles of rangeland, giving us the richest enjoyment and freedom of our pioneer life.

His name? Well, I'll just let that go for the time being, doesn't matter much, anyhow. I'll call him Neil. That'll do. Neil is a good name.

Our campfire was burning low and out. Clip Finley hesitated for a moment while the flare of his match at his pipe showed his expression was profound. After a few puffs of smoke had trailed away into the darkness, Clip slowly and quietly talked on: "In all my years on the range, I've never known a finer rifleman, quicker at the draw, skilled at the trigger, more calm when pressed by Indians and when his eye of fire flicked at the trigger end of his heavy Winchester, they tumbled like so many clay pigeons."

A faint and strangely luminous smile seemed to play at the edge of Clip's thin lips as he gazed meditatively for a moment like his eyes were fixed on something that seemed to be coming to him across the years. Our lantern light showed his expression was almost tender. A packet of be-deviled coyotes with their sepulchral-like dirge broke the silence. Puffing nervously at his pipe for a few moments, Clip talked again: "Sometimes the rule of the range was hard, yes, doubly hard amid its hellish grind, but after all there was something about it that grips and binds a fellow with an invisible bond that can not be torn asunder, there's a magic about the rangeland when it gets ahold of a fellow."

Pittsburg Gorillas, Traditional Rivals, to Call Monday Night

Kansas Teachers Seek Revenge For One Point Defeat by Locals

By Charles Curry
Missourian Sports Staff

The Gorillas from Pittsburg, Kas., and the College Bearcats are preparing to meet each other next Monday night on Maryville's court to settle a matter of basketball supremacy. So far this year the honor has gone to Maryville—by an eyelash. Pittsburg has lost to the locals once this year, but it was by one point at the end of the two overtime periods. There is no doubt that the visitors will be out with sworn intentions of avenging that defeat.

This game is important in rating Maryville as to its standing in the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The Bearcats beat Pitt by one point after two overtimes, but their league competitors, the Springfield Bears, seemed to have no difficulty in routing these same Gorillas by the comfortable margin of ten points. Perhaps Springfield caught them on an off-night and Maryville may have played them when they were in tip-top shape. Anyway, the second win proves the victor, so all fans will be watching to see if the 'Cats can repeat.

Maryville will have the advantage of play on the local court, but the Stalcupmen are not expecting a set-up. The Pitt club has never been an easy team for the Felines to trip up, even when the Kansas boys were at their weakest. In the past several years these teams have played a number of close games and overtime periods were sometimes used to decide them.

Each team has the memory of long winning streaks that the other has snapped. News is circulating that alumni of both Teachers Colleges who remember those old days will be sitting into town next Monday to witness this game which promises to be one of the closest.

Coach John Lance of Pittsburg has built his team around Uhlendorf, guard, and Rutherford, freely scoring forward. Studry, center, and Coulter, forward, assist in the adding machine tactics of this team and these four players, with the assistance of Morgan, Hutter, Adams, Mahan and Forbes, work together to make up one of the closest guarding crews that the 'Cats have tangled with this year.

Tarzans who plan to tame these Apes for Coach Wilbur Stalcup are: Harold Hull, Richard Shrout, Donald Johnson, Dale Hackett and Gale Donahue, forwards; Quentin Goslee and Ike Howell, centers; and Dean Walker, Bob Rogers, Russell Dowell, Harold Hutcheson and Neil Weary, guards. Other jungle lords likely to be suited down are: Russell Insley, Kenneth Dowell, Glenn Breckenridge and Bob Alpert.

Women in the Sports

W. A. A.

Last Monday night the Dormitory team captained by Marjorie Farmer of Cambria, Ia., defeated the Varsity Villagers team by a score of 58 to 19. High point player was Phyllis Chapman of Northboro, Ia., with a total of 22 points for the Dorm team. The Varsity Villagers team was captained by Hope Wray, Maryville.

Last night the Varsity Villagers teams 1 and 2, captained by Mary Jeannette Anthony, Maryville, and Jo Rorzhis, Ord, Neb., played the second round of the tournament. However, due to the deadline date this score will be published in next week's issue of The Missourian.

The public is invited to attend these tournament games which are held in the gymnasium every Monday and Thursday nights.

A demonstration game will be played the last of the quarter by two teams chosen from all the women out for basketball. The public is invited to this game for which a nominal admission will be charged.

Dance Club

Dance Clubbers have been busy this last week with the initiation party for the new members who won their membership in the Fall term. The initiation party was held last Tuesday night in the gymnasium and the dancers who were initiated were: Mary Jeannette Anthony, Maryville; Helen Crouch, King City; Evelyn Dow, Springfield; Betty Dix, Booneville; Martha Harmon, Rosendale; Unity Hixenbaugh, Creston, Ia.; Delore Hunter, Fairfax; Helen Johnson, Rosendale; Helen Kyle, Graham; Dorothy Lasell, Maltland; Betty Lindley, Maryville; Helen Smith, Oregon; and Dorothy and Josephine Romans, Ord, Neb. Honor guests at the party were: Miss Miriam Waggoner, Miss Win-cie Ann Caruth of the physical education department; Mrs. E. A. Davis, Mrs. Frank Garten, Miss Dorothy Truex and Mrs. H. S. Robinson.

The party was a pot luck supper and the general chairman of the event was Mary Frances Barrock, Maryville. Helen Kyle, Graham, was chairman of the entertainment committee.

At the regular meeting January 3, the club officially adopted the new point system which is based on achievement, attendance and participation. The first award is a medal, the second a leopard, the third a leopard skirt, either long or short as the girl may desire, and the fourth and final award is a trophy.

BOB ROGERS, Jackson, who accompanied the Bearcats down to his home county of Cape last Tuesday night and was the prominent scoring figure in an encounter with the Southeast Missouri Teachers at Cape Girardeau. Bob scored 17 of his teams' 36 points.

Maryville Guard Stages Scoring Spree In Close Game

Led with a wild scoring spree by little Bob Rogers, the Maryville Bearcats nosed out the Southeast Missouri Teachers of Cape Girardeau, 36 to 35, last Tuesday night on the latter's floor in a M. I. A. A. conference basketball game.

Rogers proved to be the spark of the Maryville attack in the closely contested game. He ran up a total of seventeen points, making half of his team's tally. Shroyer, Cape forward, was next in scoring with twelve points and Tony Agosti, another Cape forward, made eleven.

Coach Wilbur Stalcup used the entire squad, with the exception of Harold Hull, who is ineligible. Hull will be eligible for the next conference game.

Maryville has been playing close games all season, this being the fourth game ending with a 1-point margin. Two games were lost in Oklahoma City and on the trip home the 'Cats defeated Pittsburg by an identical score.

The score was tied 21-all at the intermission.

The score: Maryville (36) G T F P, Cape Girardeau (35) G T F P. Johnson, f., 10; 3; 0; 0. Shroyer, f., 5; 2; 0. Hackett, f., 2; 3; 0; 0. Agosti, f., 3; 5; 3. Howell, f., 0; 0; 0; 0. Bearcats To Meet Kirksville Bulldogs

Since arriving home Wednesday from a successful road trip which netted two conference victories in as many starts, the Bearcat cagers have been working out heavily in preparation for next Monday's game with Pittsburg and another conference tilt Thursday at Kirksville.

Kirksville's Bulldogs are always a hard team to beat and usually give the Bearcats a real battle. Last year the Bearcats walked off with a 36 to 21 victory on their home court but were barely able to eke out a one-point advantage of 32 to 31 in the Bulldogs' own camp.

On the basis of comparative scores the Bearcats rate the thinnest of thin edges. Kirksville defeated Rolla this season 25 to 22, while Maryville conquered the Miners 29 to 26 for an equal margin of victory. The Cape Indians, however, handed the Bulldogs a 36 to 31 shellacking, whereas the Bearcats managed to defeat Cape in a 36 to 35 thriller Tuesday night.

The Bearcats are gaining momentum and strength with every game, however, and it will take a good deal more than "pretty good" basketball on the part of the Bulldogs if they defeat the Green and White this season.

Fouls were more numerous than points during the past two weeks of intramural competition. The men seemed to be in no condition to play ball following Christmas vacation, but the same slambang type of game continued. Only one injury was reported, however. Clifton Cox who manages a team received a sprained ankle during a game with the Illinois Flashes, and has been on crutches for the past few days.

The M club and the N. Y. A. Dummies remained on top of the heap, and are spotted as the teams to beat, along with McMullin's Aces.

Bearcat Clazes . . .

by ken lawson

Two more for the Bearcats and they were both conference games. The first one was a victory over Rolla School of Mines and the score was 20-26. The 'Cats won their second one of the week when they invaded the encampment of the Cape Girardeau Indians and this one was close 36-35. That's a couple of pretty close shaves Bearcats.

In the Rolla game it was Dale Hackett who came through for the Bearcats. He scored twelve points for the boys in green and white via four field goals and a like number of charity tosses. Bob Rogers scored four field goals down there. In the Cape contest Rogers again came to the front ranks with seven field goals and three free throws. Almost half of the points scored in that game.

Even though the Miners at Rolla were not counted on for much power the Bearcats were expected to have a hard game with them because of the Rolla court. Their court is smaller than any of the other courts in the league and it is a disadvantage to the visiting team. However the game at Cape was somewhat closer than was expected.

Although I would have liked to have seen the games, there is one thing I think I would have enjoyed more. I would have liked to have seen Coach Stalcup in both of those ball games. I can just imagine what worry must have been expressed on his face when Rolla started pulling up after the half to almost tie the score with Maryville, and then Tuesday night against Cape the score was tied or very close all the way. The halftime score being 27-21. The coach must have pined for a nervous breakdown before those forty minutes were over.

This coming Monday night the Bearcats will meet the Pittsburg Teachers here at Maryville in the second contest between these two school this year. The Bearcats won the first one in two overtime periods so this promises to be a good game. Then, next Thursday night the Bearcats will meet Kirksville in their first home conference game. Kirksville always brings a good ball team to Maryville and so we will again see a good game.

Unofficially and without certainty I will say that I think that Hull and Breckenridge will be eligible for the Kirksville encounter. We all hope that this is right, especially "Pen-nuts" and "Bromo." If I am wrong on this point it is by only a day or two because I know for sure that the date is not far off from the date of the Kirksville affair.

Last Monday night a very peculiar thing was noted in the box score. Coach Stalcup used Hackett and Walker at forwards and Johnson and Rogers at guards through the entire game. Three substitutions were made all at the center position. Usually Coach Stalcup will use at least ten men in every ball game with many different combinations being used. In the Cape game it was as usual with twelve men seeing action.

Noticed several of our track stars and potential track stars working out on the outdoor track this week. I would venture a wager that they have never before worked out in the month of January on a nice wind swept field like ours. And if they ever did I would also venture another wager that they became a good deal colder than they did this week. To make a long story short—it has been warm hasn't it? Why didn't I say that in the first place?
